

PERIODS AND QUESTION MARKS

What are Periods and Question Marks?

A period is a special end mark for a sentence that tells. It looks like a round circle. .

Example: I like my dog .

A question mark is a special end mark for a sentence that asks. It looks like this. ?

Example: Do you go to school?

Remember a period ends a sentence that tells something.

A question

PREVIEW

Please login or register to download the printable version of this study guide.

www.newpathlearning.com

Try this

Put a period or question mark at the end of each sentence.

- 1] Joe was late for class__
- 2] Does he have a note__
- 3] What was that ____
- 4] Our team plays tonight__
- 5] Please give me a drink ____
- 6] May I have a drink__