

THREE-STEP DIRECTIONS

What are Three-Step Directions?

Three-step directions are actions you take to do a job. You follow them in three steps to do the job well.

Example:

It's time for bed.

First, pick up toys and clothes.

Second, brush teeth.

Third, get in bed.

Another example:

First, open the box.

Next, pour puzzle pieces on table.

Last, put the puzzle together.

Try this

Please login or register to download the printable version of this study guide.

www.newpathlearning.com

1] First

Next

Last _____

a] go fishing

b] water plant

c] thank you note

2] First, Halloween costume

Second, bag for treats

Next _____

- a] snowman
- b] swimming pool
- c] trick or treating

3] First, dinner table

Next _____
Last _____

a] napkins

b] c] jump rope

PREVIEW

Please login or register to download the printable version of this study guide.

www.newpathlearning.com