

VOCABULARY

What is Vocabulary?

Vocabulary is a list, collection, or group of words that are known by someone.

Your vocabulary is all the words you know how to pronounce, what they mean, and how to use them in a sentence too. Over time, your vocabulary grows in number, which means you learn more words as you get older!

Your vocabulary includes many kinds of words such as adjectives, adverbs, synonyms, antonyms, and even homographs.

Did you find 3 adjectives? If you did, you found all the adjectives in the sentence! Aged, calm, and peaceful are all adjectives.

What is an Adverb?

An adverb is a word that describes or modifies a verb. An adverb gives you more information about a verb.

An adverb often ends in -ly but doesn't always.

An adverb tells when, where, how, and to what extent:

Example of an adverb that tells when:
She is coming over today.

Example of an adverb that tells where:
Put your backpack over there.

Example of an adverb that tells how:
The cow walked slowly across the field.
