

THE U.S. CONSTITUTION

“We the People...”

The Constitution was drafted by James Madison and then discussed at the Constitutional Convention in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania in 1787. Each of the 13 states could send delegates to this convention. The Constitution became an important document for America, since it set up many ideas by which the U.S. is now governed. Some of these important ideas are below:

Try This!

Draw lines to connect these important people to their branch of government.

President
Senator
State Representative
Supreme Court Justice
Vice President
Judge

Judicial Branch
Legislative Branch
Executive Branch

Circle the freedoms given in the Bill of Rights.

practice a religion
office

ride an airplane

go to the post

buy land
the press

freedom of rich

True or False

have better ideas about government.

freedom of

right to be

We now

PREVIEW

Please login or register to download the printable version of this study guide.

www.newpathlearning.com