

ANCIENT ROME: (500 BC-500 AD)

Ancient Rome is characterized by many different leaders, governments and events. The history of ancient Rome spans a number of centuries, and is divided into three main categories: the Roman Kingdom, the Roman Republic, and the Roman Empire. Ancient Rome is celebrated for the development of laws and a diverse history of governmental structure.

Please login or register to download the printable version of this study guide.

www.newpathlearning.com

Ancient Roman leaders, Augustus, Constantine and Nero are just a few of the historic figures that led to the expansion of Rome. While much of the expansion of Rome was a result of battle with other civilizations, it made the spread of culture possible during ancient times.

Ancient Rome is also known for the contributions made in the fields of art, architecture and engineering. Roman aqueducts are one of the most renowned developments in history, as the structure to provide thousands of people with water necessary to survival.

PREVIEW

Please login or register to download the printable version of this study guide.

www.newpathlearning.com